(But admission will be collected for each person in a vehicle).
Exhibitor's tickets	$1 00

No passes. No checks. No money taken at the Gates.

2. Gates open at 7 o'clock A. M. each day, when officers and employees are expected to be at their posts; each of them will be provided with an admission ticket.
3. Complimentary tickets issued only to the clergy, press and officers of agricultural societies.

4. Exhibitors of live stock will receive tickets at the Secretary's office for necessary helpers, allowing them to remain upon the grounds, but such tickets will not admit them at the gates.

II. ENTRY FEES.

5. For entrance fee to speed and live stock classes see the list of those classes. Entrance to all other classes free.

III. ENTRIES.

6. Entries received by the Secretary at any time, at his office, No. 9, McKeen Block, or by mail, until the first day of the Fair, when they must be made at the grounds. Entries not received after 11 A. M., Tuesday, unless by special order of the Board of Directors (except in Classes G, H, I and J).

7. All entries numbered and recorded and corresponding tags issued, which must be attached to the exhibits with owner's name on the tag.

Exhibitors will confer a favor on the Association by making their entries the week before the Fair, if possible.

IV. LIVE STOCK.

8. All live stock classes will be judged by three judges.
9. All animals must be entered in the name of actual owner.
10. All animals must be exhibited at such time and place as the Superintendent in charge shall direct, in accordance with the official programme.
11. Straw furnished free of charge to exhibitors of stock during the Fair. Grain and hay for sale on the grounds.
12. Exhibitors of animals are requested to place cards on stalls, giving name and address, name of animal, breed, and other items of interest to visitors. Cards can be had at the Secretary's office.
13. For animals not exhibited, though entered for competition, a charge of $2.00 per day will be made for use of stalls and keeping.
14. Stalls and pens assigned in the order of application to bona fide entries. Stock provided with entry tags will be assigned places by the Superintendents of the departments until 12 M. of the second day of the Fair, when all exhibits must be on the grounds.

V. POLICE REGULATIONS.

15. The general superintendent will have charge of the grounds, and it shall be his duty, with the assistance of the police, to preserve order. He shall have power (under the direction of the officers) to increase or diminish the police force, and he shall detail a suitable number of the police for night service. Any employee who shall neglect the duty assigned him, or leave his beat without permission, shall forfeit such part of his pay as the Board may determine. No bills for police service will be paid unless presented by the General Superintendent.

The policemen will be sworn in as conservators of the peace, and it shall be their duty to arrest any person entering the grounds clandestinely, creating disorder on the grounds, or violating rules of the Association or laws of the State.

16. The Society will, by the aid of the police and watchmen, do all that is possible for the protection of contributions, but will not hold itself responsible for the loss or damage of any article.

VI. SUPERINTENDENTS.

17. Superintendents and assistants shall be at their departments from 7 A. M. until 6 P. M. each day of the Fair.

They will receive the property entered for exhibition, see that tags are securely attached and all articles attractively displayed.

19. Before examination of departments each Superintendent will receive from the Secretary a class-book, containing the entries. Before examination call over the numbers on tags to see if they correspond with the book. Report erroneous entries to the Secretary for correction before the awards are made.

Great care must be used to preserve the class-books and the awards must be entered in a plain, legible manner in the proper spaces. The premiums will be paid on authority of these entries only.

They will receive the property entered for exhibition, see that tags are securely attached and all articles attractively displayed.

19. Before examination of departments each Superintendent will receive from the Secretary a class-book, containing the entries. Before examination call over the numbers on tags to see if they correspond with the book. Report erroneous entries to the Secretary for correction before the awards are made.

Great care must be used to preserve the class-books and the awards must be entered in a plain, legible manner in the proper spaces. The premiums will be paid on authority of these entries only.

VII. DISCOURTESY AND FRAUD.

20. The Superintendents must forbid discourtesy to the judges, or attempts to influence the awards by any exhibitor, or others, and can exclude such exhibitors from competition.

21. If false entries are made, or disrespect shown to an award or to the judges, by an exhibitor, or his agent, he shall forfeit all awards made to him, and the Superintendent shall report the same in the committee book.

VIII. JUDGES AND AWARDS.

22. Awarding Committee will consist of three, the first named to act as chairman, and in case of disagreement by the other two, he will vote for one of the two articles selected by them.

No person related to an exhibitor in any class shall serve on a committee for such class.

23. Protests must be in writing, and state plainly cause of protest or appeal.

24. Any person aggrieved by the acts of a Superintendent or Committee in any matter not covered by the rules, can submit the matter in writing to the Board of Directors.

25. Committees, to act intelligently, should examine the special rules for their departments. Award no premium to an exhibit not decidedly meritorious. When there is only one entry give first or second premium, or none, as it deserves. No ribbon or premium can be awarded for articles not named in the premium list.

26. All doubts or questions should be referred to the Superintendent, who should obtain the desired information.

27. No person allowed to interfere with the Committees during adjudication; any person, who, by letter or otherwise, attempts such interference will be excluded from competition. If the Board is satisfied that a premium has been obtained by fraud or improper means, it shall be withheld.

28. The Marshal and Superintendents shall allow no person inside the ring when exhibitions of stock are going on except the judge and the one in charge of the animal.

29. All questions of breeding, eligibility, etc., known at the time of examination, shall be determined by the judges. All complaints must be made and determined before the awards are made.

IX. PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS AND BILLS.

30. A red ribbon will be used for the first premium, a blue ribbon for the second premium and a yellow ribbon for third premium; but premiums will be paid according to records in the committee books only.

31. The premiums will be paid on October 13th, at the Secretary's office, to residents of Terre Haute and vicinity. To non-residents, premiums will be mailed in registered letter, postal note or cheque, less charges. All premiums paid in full.

32. The Secretary will issue orders for payment of special premiums upon the parties offering them, which will be in full for all demands upon the Society. Special premiums can be collected only on an order signed by the Secretary.

33. Orders not called for by November 1st, 1894, will be considered forfeited to the Society, as the books must be closed by that day.

34. All bills for labor, services, salaries and supplies furnished to the Society and Fair, must be approved by the Board of Directors before payment. No higher rate allowed an employe than that named for similar service on the schedule of wages. All bills and claims, countersigned by the officer authorizing them, should be filed with the secretary for prompt payment.

X. FORBIDDEN.

35. There shall not be allowed to be sold upon the fair grounds of the Vigo Agricultural Society during the week of the fair any beer, vinous, malt or spirituous liquors.

36. All exhibits will be under the charge of the Superintendents of the departments, and must not be removed before the close of the Fair, under penalty.

37. Obnoxious or repulsive articles will be excluded from the grounds.

38. No gambling, games of chance, immoral exhibitions, nor intoxicated persons will be allowed on the grounds.

39. No fires will be allowed in any of the stalls or barns on the grounds.

40. Horses must not be hitched to any trees, fences or buildings or left loose. Hitching posts are provided for all.

XI. PRIVILEGES.

41. The Directors shall annually elect a Superintendent of Privileges who shall have charge of letting the grounds for picnics, celebrations, etc., and the sale of the stands and booths. He shall charge and collect a reasonable price for the privileges of stands, shows, etc., used for pecuniary gain, or he may at his discretion, sell the privilege of all stands to parties who have charge of celebrations, etc.

Stalls on the grounds, with privilege to use track, are rented for $2.00 a month. Excellent quarters for summer or winter.

PREMIUM LIST.

CLASS A.

HORSES.

H. D. ROQUET, Ch'n, }
W. R. HUNTER, } Supervisory Committee.
ED. ELLIS, }

1. A horse's age will be reckoned from the first day of January in the year in which he was foaled. Foals will be considered one year old on the 1st of January succeeding birth.

2. Horses entered single must be shown single and in harness, when three years old and over, except stallions.

3. Stallions will not be allowed to compete alone, or with other horses, as carriage horses.

4. Identity of color is not indispensable in matched teams, but both animals must be owned by the same person or firm. No team matched for the occasion will be eligible in any class.

5. No horse will be allowed a premium unless sound, except in cases of stallions and brood mares, injured by accidents, which do not impair their usefulness.

6. An animal may be exhibited in as many classes as the owner may choose, where the same may be eligible, but for every time the same is re-entered the regular entry fee will be charged.

7. The entry fee will be 10 per cent. of the total premium offered. The exhibitor will receive a ticket good for one admission daily, when fees are over $1.00. In applications for stalls give the number of horses to be exhibited. Stalls and straw free for stock on exhibition. Premiums paid in full without any deduction.

CLASS J.

DAIRY, KITCHEN AND PANTRY.

JOHN M. CLIFT, Superintendent.

Make out lists of your articles, according to the premium list, before offering them for entry, using catalogue numbers.

Articles in glass will be received at the hall from Tuesday, 1 P. M. until Wednesday noon. Deliver as many as convenient on Tuesday. Examination of these will begin Wednesday at 2 P. M. Butter must be delivered by 10 A. M. Wednesday. (Abundance of ice will be provided for it.) It will be examined same day, and returned at 5 P. M., if desired. Bread and baked articles will be received any time on Wednesday, and will be judged early Thursday morning. They can be called for at 5 P. M., but not before that. All goods remaining in the pantry hall on Friday can be called for at 3 P. M.

Lists of entries can be filed at the Secretary's office (Room 9, McKeen Block), the week before the Fair and tags secured, or at the grounds during the Fair. Deliver goods to the receiving clerk at hall and apply to same for their return.

Articles will be tested by sight and taste. All loaves and cakes will be cut for examination. Chemically preserved articles cannot compete with home made articles. All articles must be home made and the product of the person in whose name they are entered. Preserves, canned and pickled articles and syrups must be in glass. No article can take two premiums unless one is a Special, nor be entered for two Society premiums. The work of two or more persons can not be entered as one exhibit. When known, premiums forfeited.

Keep away from the judges while they are examining articles, or they may pass yours without examination.

You are recommended to mark your plates and dishes (and lids, too), with gummed labels, marked with your exhibition number. If you have no label, get them at the hall. You are solicited to furnish neat stands with your cakes, and pretty shapes for your glasses and jars, when convenient, for we wish to make this department attractive and beautiful. The hall will be handsomely trimmed.

Jars and glasses should be plainly marked with name of contents.

ART AND TEXTILE CLASSES.

JOHN M. CLIFT, General Superintendent.

Please make your entries week before the fair.

Exhibitors should make written lists of their articles, using the class letters, numbers and descriptions found in this book before applying for entry. For lists mailed or delivered to the Secretary in advance, tags will be made out before the Fair. Exhibitors making entries early, or provided with lists of entries, will save time and trouble. No lot can be entered twice, except for certain specials and some collections. Articles not made by exhibitor can not compete for premiums. One entry can not include the work of more than one individual. Goods which can not remain till close of Fair not received.

Expert judges will be employed. They will be authorized by the rules to pass over exhibits or withhold premiums when interfered with or advised by exhibitors. Superintendents and assistants are instructed by the managers to avoid even the appearance of bias towards any exhibit, and to make no comments, to use great care in displaying goods, to put no pins through silk, satin, cambric, lawn, or anything that can be thus injured, nor cover one piece by another.

Exhibitors not allowed to take down their goods, which must remain up until close of Fair.

Deliver goods (after being entered) to the Receiving and Delivery Clerks, and apply to same for their return.

Exhibitors from a distance are advised to pack goods in firm boxes; to put owner's address on inside of lid; and also to paste in a duplicate list of articles. Special care will be taken of packing-cases. Articles belonging to home exhibitors left at the Exhibition Hall up to Saturday noon will be sent to the Secretary's office. Goods sent to us by express will be shipped back on Saturday.

Articles which the exhibitor will sell may be marked with the selling price.

Goods must be at the hall by 6 P. M. Monday.
